"Recalling its resolution 47/196 of 22 December 1992 entitled 'Observance of an international day for the eradication of poverty',

"Taking note of the report of the Secretary-General on the International Year for the Eradication of Poverty, 1/

"Deeply concerned at the steady increase in poverty in developing countries and at its effect on the most vulnerable groups of society,

"Aware of the need for a better understanding of the causes and consequences of poverty,

"Recognizing that the eradication of poverty and the full achievement of social, economic and environmental objectives and strategies are interrelated goals,

"Stressing the importance of international cooperation in combating poverty and the exchange among countries of successful experiences in the field,

"Recognizing that the grave suffering of the great majority of human beings who live in conditions of poverty demands the immediate attention of the international community and the adoption of concrete actions and measures for the eradication of poverty within the framework of relevant forthcoming United Nations conferences, particularly the World Summit for Social Development, and within the context of the International Year for the Eradication of Poverty,

1/ A/49/572.

"2. "3. Stresses that an in-depth and complete study of the nature, the causes and the consequences of all types of poverty in developing countries which affect mankind is necessary within the framework of the Year;

"4. Requests the Secretary-General, through the secretariat of the World Summit for Social Development, the United Nations Research Institute for Social Development and the United Nations University, to give appropriate consideration, in directing their research and studies of all types of poverty, to the experiences of the poor themselves and so contribute to a better understanding of their situation;

"5. Also requests the Secretary-General, in consultation with all States, concerned specialized agencies, programmes and organs of the United Nations system, relevant international organizations, non-governmental organizations and interested groups, to achieve at an early date the elaboration of the draft programme concerning the preparations for and observance of the Year, containing the objectives, principles and main recommendations for the Year, and to submit a final report thereon to the General Assembly for adoption at its fiftieth session;

"6. Recommends that a number of particular themes should be chosen on the one hand to reflect the multidimensional and complex nature of the problem and the multisectoral, multi-pronged and comprehensive approach required to meet the challenge of poverty, and on the other to ensure that the Year makes a distinct and significant contribution to the effort to eradicate poverty;

"7. Requests the preparatory body for the Year to organize in 1995, so as to choose a logo for the Year, an international competition whose winner should be awarded a prize at the launching ceremony of the Year;

At the 32nd meeting, on 7 December, the Committee had before it a draft resolution entitled "International cooperation for the eradication of poverty in developing countries: International Year for the Eradication of Poverty" (A/C.2/49/L.53), submitted by the Vice-Chairman of the Committee, Mr. Raiko Raichev (Bulgaria), on the basis of informal consultations held on draft resolution A/C.2/49/L.28.

4. At the same meeting after a statement by the representative of Benin (see A/C.2/49/SR.32), the Chairman orally revised draft resolution A/C.2/49/L.53 as follows:

(a) In the penultimate preambular paragraph, the words "combating poverty," were deleted and replaced by the word "and";
